

Bad Usability Calendar - 2008

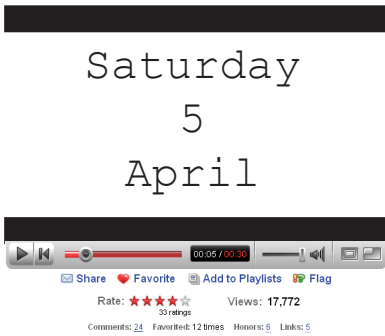

Choose a presentation form that suits your content

January

Video is dandy - as long as it supports the user's task

April - spring is here

Fitts Law: Bigger IS better - or at least easier to click

July

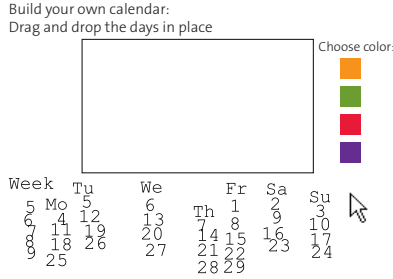

Focus effort on your core content; the home page sees fewer visitors

October.com

Offer personalization only where it adds value

February

Don't require Log in if you don't have to

May

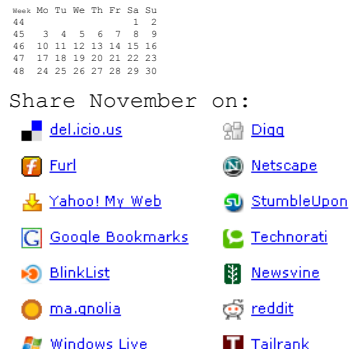

More navigation doesn't always make your site easier to use

August

One word: Oversharing

November

Keep novel choices visible; don't hide information in dropdowns

March

Who said usable has to be boring

June

Don't copy every fancy Web 2.0 element you see

We've all seen enough Facebook clones now, thank you!

December
